Human trafficking gained considerable attention in the early 21st century when it was cast alongside terrorism, arms dealing, and the drug trade as one of the most prevalent crimes in the world and the second most profitable form of organized criminal activity. Yet understandings of human trafficking remain highly contested and explanations are frequently polarized by debates concerning morality, justice, citizenship, and sexuality. Using a sociological lens, this course is designed to help students critically examine and contextualize conflicting understandings of human trafficking and to consider effective modes of prevention and response.

Expected Learning Outcomes:

- Understanding various frameworks used to understand human trafficking – poverty, history, human rights and sociology.
- Recognizing forms of human trafficking that occur both globally and domestically.
- Critically analysing different responses to human trafficking – improving law enforcement, victim orientation and development initiatives.
- Evaluating international and Canadian responses to human trafficking.
- Assessing individual responses to demand for human trafficking.
- Considering the responses and opportunities for the church and individual Christians.

Course Requirements:Scripture Reflection

Does God call us to be just? To do justice? To be defenders? Please find a passage of scripture that relates to justice and sign up for a class in which to share the following:

- Scripture passage on the subject of justice
- Commentary or insight from someone else re the topic (i.e. could be commentary from your study Bible, a reading from someone else – anything that further illuminates the passage)
- Your thoughts on the subject / passage

This will be marked out of 5 with one mark for the first point above and two marks each for the 2nd and 3rd points. A resource you may find useful is The Poverty and Justice Bible (Canadian Bible Society). These are expected to be fairly informal presentations – no PPT's or other visual aids please. Please be prepared to share your reflection at the start of the class in question.

Justice Event

Students will be expected to take part in a justice related event outside of class. You could:

- Attend an event put on by an NGO doing justice related work
- Attend a film, prayer night or other awareness type event focused on justice
- Directly visit and learn more about a local NGO doing justice related work

Please submit an entry or document on Moodle with what you have attended and a few sentences about what you learned. If doing a visit or interview, provide a bit more detail re mode and length of visit and topics discussed. It is expected that students that do the foregoing will receive full credit (i.e. 5% of the course grade).

Research Paper & Presentation

A core aspect of the course will be the development of a research paper that critically discusses and analyzes either one of the topics of the course or another topic approved by the instructor. Students can work on the research paper individually or in groups of 2-3 students. Students will also be expected to prepare a poster for submission for the Ambrose research conference. Detailed instructions will be provided on Moodle.

Creative Presentation or Book Review

Students will be expected to either: a) individually read a book referred to in the course (or otherwise approved by the professor) and not used for the research paper and complete a book review OR b) individually or in groups of up to 4 students, put together a creative presentation (series of blogs, video, live act etc.) that can be used to raise awareness of human trafficking. Detailed instructions will be provided on Moodle.

Submission of Assignments:

Separate instructions for each assignment (other than Scripture Reflection which will have the wiki sign-up only) will be posted on Moodle. All written assignments are to be submitted on Moodle.

Attendance & Participation:

Each student is expected to regularly attend and actively participate in classroom discussions and any on-line discussion forums assigned. Group discussions and analysis of course topics will be a key component of learning throughout the term. Students are expected to attend all classes, having prepared for class by reading the assigned readings ahead of time and actively participate in group discussions. The skills needed to participate effectively in class and present your ideas are the same skills required to be effective in the business world. If external circumstances or illness prevent you from attending or adequately preparing for a class, please let the professor know. The instructor may reduce a student's mark by a letter grade (i.e. B to B-) if a student's participation is inadequate (in addition to the direct effect on the round table and participation portion of the grade).

Grade Summary:

The available letters for course grades are as follows:

% Grade	Letter Grade	Description
95% to 100%	A+
90% to 94%	A	Excellent
85% to 89%	A-

To pass the course, students must achieve an overall grade of at least 50%. Failure to submit an assignment without legitimate reason (i.e. evidenced illness) or prior approval of the instructor may result in a failed grade for the course. In the case of legitimate or approved absence, and at the instructor's discretion, the assigned date may be rescheduled to a later date, or if this is not practically possible, the marks reallocated to other components of the course grade. Late assignments will typically receive a mark of 0. Please note that final grades will be available on your student portal.

A review fee of $50.00 must accompany the appeal to review final grades. If the appeal is sustained, the fee will be refunded.

Academic Integrity

We are committed to fostering personal integrity and will not overlook breaches of integrity such as plagiarism and cheating. Academic dishonesty is taken seriously at Ambrose University College as it undermines our academic standards and affects the integrity of each member of our learning community. Any attempt to obtain credit for academic work through fraudulent, deceptive, or dishonest means is academic dishonesty. Plagiarism involves presenting someone else's ideas, words, or work as one's own. Plagiarism is fraud and theft, but plagiarism can also occur by accident when a student fails or forgets to give credit to another person's ideas or words. Plagiarism and cheating can result in a failing grade for an assignment, for the course, or immediate dismissal from the university college. Students are expected to be familiar with the policies in the current Academic Calendar that deal with plagiarism, cheating, and the penalties and procedures for dealing with these matters. All cases of academic dishonesty are reported to the Academic Dean and become part of the student's permanent record.

Students are strongly advised to retain this syllabus for their records.
