Course Requirements

In order to complete this course successfully the student should do the following:

- Attend class with the translation exercise assigned for the class completed (a translation exercise is associated with each lesson of An Introduction to New Testament Greek). Attendance and completion of exercises will be kept track of through handing in the completed exercise at the end of class. No translation exercise will be accepted later than the end of the class that it is due.
- Read each assigned lesson from An Introduction to New Testament Greek and memorize the paradigms and vocabulary associated with it.
- Read sections from The Basics of New Testament Syntax: An Intermediate Greek Grammar that expand on the grammar introduced in various lessons of An Introduction to New Testament Greek.

- Write two 90 minute mid-term examinations. These will test points of grammar covered to the date of the test.
- Write a final exam of 2 hours duration. This exam will test points of grammar covered during the semester.
