Course Description:

This three-hour, hands-on, online workshop will give you the theological and homiletic tools for unpacking and preaching God’s revelation through creation (alongside and through the scriptures).

Expected Learning Outcomes:

1. Students will be better equipped to engage and preach God’s revelation through physical world God has made. They will come to understand and encounter Jesus as not just as the mediator of salvation but also the mediator of creation.
2. Students will learn how to (with the help of science-related professionals) exegete creation texts. They’ll be given the tools to come alongside scientists and theologically converse with, and guide them, them in the process of unpacking creation texts.
3. Students will learn how to craft and preach a co-illuminating ‘two-book’ sermon (based on the creation and biblical texts).

Course Schedule:

March 24, 2021 – A three-hour workshop on how to preach creation texts

Requirements:

Students will be required to write and preach one science/creation-based sermon. Sermon manuscript will be submitted for grading/feedback before it is preached. Sermon video will also be submitted for final grading.

Policies:

Communication

All students have received an Ambrose e-mail account upon registration. It is the student's responsibility to check this account regularly as the Ambrose email system will be the professor's instrument for notifying students of important matters (cancelled class sessions, extensions, requested appointments, etc.) between class sessions. If students do not wish to use their Ambrose accounts, they will need to forward all messages from the Ambrose account to another personal account.

Registration

During the Registration Revision Period students may enter a course without permission, change the designation of any class from credit to audit and /or voluntary withdraw from a course without financial or academic penalty or record. Courses should be added or dropped on the student portal by the deadline date; please consult the List of Important Dates. After that date, the original status remains and the student is responsible for related fees.

Students intending to withdraw from a course after the Registration Revision Period must apply to the Office of the Registrar by submitting a "Request to Withdraw from a Course" form or by sending an email to the Registrar's Office by the Withdrawal Deadline; please consult the List of Important Dates on the my.ambrose.edu website. Travel is not considered a valid excuse for re-scheduling or missing a final exam.

Electronic Etiquette

Students are expected to treat their instructor, guest speakers, and fellow students with respect. It is disruptive to the learning goals of a course or seminar and disrespectful to fellow students and the instructor to use electronics for purposes unrelated to the course during a class session. Academic Integrity

We are committed to fostering personal integrity and will not overlook breaches of integrity such as plagiarism and cheating. Academic dishonesty is taken seriously at Ambrose University as it undermines our academic standards and affects the integrity of each member of our learning community. Any attempt to obtain credit for academic work through fraudulent, deceptive, or dishonest means is academic dishonesty. Plagiarism involves presenting someone else's ideas, words, or work as one's own. Plagiarism is fraud and theft, but plagiarism can also occur by accident when a student fails or forgets to acknowledge to another person's ideas or words. Plagiarism and cheating can result in a failing grade for an assignment, for the course, or immediate dismissal from the university college. Students are expected to be familiar with the policies in the current Academic Calendar that deal with plagiarism, cheating, and the penalties and procedures for dealing with these matters. All cases of academic dishonesty are reported to the Academic Dean and become part of the student's permanent record.

Note: Students are strongly advised to retain this syllabus for their records.
