Textbooks: Giving Blood (Leonard Sweet); Preaching Re-Imagined (Doug Pagitt)

Course Description:

In an era of profound story telling does preaching seem culturally obsolete? This course will explore ways to effectively communicate the overarching biblical story with folks in the real world. This course will teach both the art and craft of engaged preaching for today.

Expected Learning Outcomes:

The overall goal of this course is to help learners become better preachers of God's Word, with a particular focus on the art and craft of preaching through the use of story.

The course will enable the learner to:

- explore the biblical value of preaching
- better understand Jesus' methodology as a preacher and apply his practices to preaching today
- learn to use story creatively to effectively connect the listener to the biblical text
- include a multiplicity of voices in preaching
- listen to the Spirit in discerning how and what to preach
- skilfully craft a sermon for every context

Course Schedule:

To be distributed in class.

Requirements:

- A. Reading Reflection (25%): Both required texts are to be read carefully and completely. In addition the student is to read an additional 500 pages from the recommended reading list included with this syllabus. The learner is to write a four to six page summary and response to ONE (1) of the required texts indicating ways in which you found the book helpful or unhelpful in addressing both why and how story is useful in preaching today.
- B. Connecting Story Exercise (10%) During the week of class the student is expected to find two relevant stories in cultural media and demonstrate their connection to a biblical text. Each story, and its biblical connectedness, will be presented in TWO one-page summaries and will be shared in class on the final day.
- C. Preparation and Delivery of Sermons (30%): The student is to prepare and deliver TWO (2) sermons, which are to be recorded and sent to the instructor through wetransfer. (See below for instructions on submitting recorded sermons). The ideal context in which to preach your sermons is an actual service or worship gathering. However, recognizing this may not be possible for all students, alternative provisions may include preaching to a small group or ad hoc group of family and friends, or recording your messages by means of an audio program on computer or other digital recorder. Each sermon is to be approximately 20 minutes in length, but no longer than 25 minutes.
- D. Sermon Analysis (2 sermons) (15%) The student is to listen to TWO (2) sermons, from recommendations the instructor will provide, and write a two- page critique of the sermon, particularly with regard to the effectiveness of the use of story in connecting the text to the listener, and the listener to the text.
- E. Theological Summary paper (20%) Reflecting on a story Jesus used to connect biblical truth to His culture, describe, in four to six pages, your own theology of preaching and the importance of the use of culturally applicable stories. A demonstration of reading done in this course is essential in this assignment.

DUE DATE FOR ASSIGNMENTS:

All assignments must be submitted on or before June 30, 2016. Any submissions beyond this date will need to be negotiated with the Registrar.

SUBMITTING WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS:

The preferred method of submission for assignments is electronically by email to the instructor. It is important that all submissions be formatted as a Word document, NOT PDF. Please ensure that your name is clearly marked on each assignment and that you number your pages.

SUBMITTING RECORDED SERMONS:

Sermon files are too large to email. Instead upload your sermon file to wetransfer.com (a free service) and send it to the instructor's email address: joyceaudreyrees@gmail.com Wetransfer will confirm having sent the file, and the instructor will confirm having received your file.

Attendance:

We will miss you terribly if you are not here! Furthermore, if you miss more than 20% of the class (that is the equivalent of one full day) you will unfortunately forfeit credit for the course.

Grade Summary:

The available letters for course grades are as follows:

Letter Grade	Description

Because of the nature of the Alpha 4.00 system, there can be no uniform College-wide conversion scale. The relationship between raw scores (e.g. percentages) and the resultant letter grade will depend on the nature of the course and the instructor's assessment of the level of each class, compared to similar classes taught previously.

Please note that final grades will be available on student registration system. Printed grade sheets are not mailed out.

Academic Integrity

We are committed to fostering personal integrity and will not overlook breaches of integrity such as plagiarism and cheating. Academic dishonesty is taken seriously at Ambrose University as it undermines our academic standards and affects the integrity of each member of our learning community. Any attempt to obtain credit for academic work through fraudulent, deceptive, or dishonest means is academic dishonesty. Plagiarism involves presenting someone else's ideas, words, or work as one's own. Plagiarism is fraud and theft, but plagiarism can also occur by accident when a student fails or forgets to acknowledge to another person's ideas or words. Plagiarism and cheating can result in a failing grade for an assignment, for the course, or immediate dismissal from the university college. Students are expected to be familiar with the policies in the current Academic Calendar that deal with plagiarism, cheating, and the penalties and procedures for dealing with these matters. All cases of academic dishonesty are reported to the Academic Dean and become part of the student's permanent record.

Note: Students are strongly advised to retain this syllabus for their records.
