WM 635.1/EV 635.1 Establishing Communities of Faith in a Multi-Cultural World

Instructor: Dr. Richard P. Gilbertson

Class Time: Tuesdays, 2:30-5:15

Classroom: 2133

Contacting instructor: Office: 2049 Email Address: rgilbertson@ambrose.edu

1. COURSE DESCRIPTION

“Establishing Communities of Faith in Multi-cultural World is designed to introduce the learner to the exciting ministry of initiating vibrant communities of faith (the church) in context. Participants will discover culturally relevant ways of applying trans-cultural biblical principles associated with evangelism and the growth of dynamic communities of faith. A theological framework for establishing these communities in their local context is accompanied by relevant methodological and strategic research that informs the way in which these communities are developed in our multi-cultural world.”

2. COURSE OBJECTIVES

2.1 Cognitive . . . what the learner should know and understand.

- Articulate the theological and biblical foundations for church planting in general and cross cultural-“pioneer” contexts in particular.
- Understand the relevance of Trinitarian theology for the practice of church planting.
- Present the dimensions involved in “moving into the neighbourhood”, an incarnational approach to church planting.

2.2 Affective . . . what the learner should feel and appreciate.

- Esteem the divine aspect of church planting and the resulting implications for both personal spiritual formation and personal spiritual life practices.
- Recognize the importance of an thorough understanding of a “neighbourhood” and its people for contextualizing strategy.

2.3 Conative . . . what the learner should be able to do and perform.

- Identify worthwhile resources to inform and guide starting new churches.
- Articulate their own personal philosophy of ministry along with contextual applications for various intercultural settings.

5. COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING

Reflection on the book of Acts	5%	Sept. 20th
Critical Analysis of The Celtic Way of Evangelism	15%	Oct. 18th
Interview and case study	20%	Nov. 8th
Case study reflection #1 and #2	5%	Nov. 29 + Dec. 6th
Church Planting Research Project	40 %	Dec. 8 th
Reading, class facilitation, and participation-	15%
TOTAL	100%

5.1 Reflection on the book of Acts (5%) Due: Sept. 20th

Read the book of Acts and observe the story of churches being birthed in new areas. Note cases where messengers needed to cross language or cultural barriers in order to move into new territory. Write a brief two (2) page summary of your findings- you may use bullet form if desired.

5.2 Critical Analysis of The Celtic Way of Evangelism (15%) Due date: Oct. 18th

The student will read The Celtic Way of Evangelism: How Christianity can reach the west...again. (see Bibliography) and write a three (3) page critical analysis. The first two (2) pages should compare Hunter's book with the content and reading discussed in class and then a one (1) page reflection on how the content applies to the current cultural context in Canada.

5.3 Interview and case study: New church plant/Establishing a faith community- (20%) Due date: Nov. 8th

The Student will find a pastor/church planter/missionary who has started/is starting a new church. The student will then interview the person and submit a four page (4) report based on the interview and case study.

Interview: Prepare a list of questions based on course content that will i) discover the story behind the church plant ii) the process/elements/strategy involved iii) the personal journey of the church planter.

Report: Summarize the results of the interview/case study (2 pages) and then provide a personal/strategic/theological reflection on lessons learned (2 pages). Submit a copy of interview questions as an appendix

5.4 Case Study Reflection paper #1 and #2 (Due Nov. 29th and Dec. 6th)

On November 22 and 29 we will have a practitioner share a case study of a cross cultural church plant that they have been a part of. The student will write an one (1) page reflection on each class, stating what they learned from the session.

5.5 Church Planting Research Project (40%) Due Date- Dec. 6th

Each student will be responsible to write a fifteen (15) page project (not including appendices). The student should consider the content and frameworks discussed throughout the course as a foundation for their research. The paper will present a specific application of the course content to an area of personal interest and passion for the student. The student must read 400-500 pages as part of their research and include a statement indicating they have done so in the bibliography section of the paper.

Choose from the following options:

- Planting a church in a Creative Access Country (choose a specific country and people group)
- Planting a church among new Canadians in Canada (choose a specific group)
- The _____ Experience of Church Planting: a Case Study
- Planting a church among Muslim background people (or another religious group- Buddhist, Hindu, etc)
- Being involved in “Tentmaking” and the task of cross-cultural church planting. (This may be of particular interest for those who see themselves having a vocation other than “full-time” ministry.)
- Pioneer Church Planting in Teams- the role of teams in cross-cultural church planting.
- A topic approved by Instructor

5.6 Reading, class facilitation, and participation (15 %)

Appendix 1 provides a summary of the reading required to be completed for the beginning of each class. The reading will compliment the lecture portion of the class so it is absolutely essential that the student be familiar with the content.

Each class will have a fifteen (15) minute discussion based on reading from either Hesselgrave or Seamands. A student will lead this portion of the class. The designated leader for the day is expected to facilitate interaction and response to the required reading. A list will be established outlining the order for facilitating group discussion.

6. TYPICAL CLASS STRUCTURE-

The nature of the topic is such that class interaction/discussion is very important for the application of knowledge. The following is a general overview of a “typical class”

- “Highlights from reading material”- take aways; responses, reflections?
- Lecture based on course outline + case study/discussion
- Class discussion: (student lead) Seamands- spirituality of ministry (BEING-DOING) approx. 15 min.
- CONCLUSION.
