Course Description

This course introduces students to post-secondary studies in English by examining developments in literature and language in and over time. Students will study particular themes and compare different genres in and across a broad array of texts, placed in their historical contexts, which may range from the Renaissance to contemporary times. This course aims at developing sensitivity to genre, cultivating writing skills, and providing students with a set of literary terms and critical techniques as a foundation for further literary study.

A minimum of 30% of class time will be devoted to writing instruction. Because the course integrates writing instruction with the study of literature—writing through literature—this stated minimum will normally be exceeded. Graded written assignments, informal writing exercises, writing workshops, free-writing exercises, stylistic analysis, research skills, peer editing, multiple drafts, and ungraded writing will be undertaken. Students will be required to write at least two essays that will be marked and formally graded. During the course, students will write at least 3000 words.

Expected Learning Outcomes

Diligent students of the English program will:

1. Understand the nature of literature as a unique mode of writing distinguished by its imaginative use of and attention to narrative, symbol, figurative language, and structural patterns.
2. Understand how literature imaginatively combines the ideas and concepts of philosophy, history, theology, the fine arts, and many other modes of knowledge.
3. Develop the skill of analyzing literature by learning formal literary concepts and critical theories of interpretation.
4. Develop the skill of writing clear, compelling, and correct prose in essays that logically argue a claim on the basis of literary-textual evidence.

5. Weigh the meaning of Christianity's pervasive influence on English literature.
6. Learn, in the words of the Book of Common Prayer, to "reverence truth, desire goodness, and rejoice in beauty," as these qualities are manifested in literature.

Textbooks

EN 115-2 Course Reader – posted to Moodle. Print out in full and bring to class as assigned.

Messenger, William E. et al. The Concise Canadian Writer's Handbook. 3rd ed. Don Mills: Oxford, 2017.

Lewis, Janet. The Wife of Martin Guerre. Athens, Ga.: Swallow, 2013.

Shakespeare, William. Much Ado About Nothing. Ed. Peter Holland. The Pelican Shakespeare. London: Penguin, 1999.

Dictionary: Students should own a good desk dictionary to support their writing and their entire course of studies. The mother of all dictionaries, the full Oxford English Dictionary, is available online via the Ambrose Library website and our course Moodle site.

Requirements:

- Class sessions will be largely devoted to considering the assigned readings. Therefore:
 - Read all assigned texts before the class for which they are assigned;
 - Always bring the relevant textbooks to class;
 - Print any readings posted on Moodle and bring them with you to class.
- Additional short texts introduced in class will be made available on Moodle.
- In addition to the assigned readings, you are responsible for the content of all lectures on these readings, including their historical and literary backgrounds. In other words, attend class.
- All assignments are due by the beginning of class on the date specified. Submission types may be hard copy, digital copy to Moodle, or both; see schedule and assignment sheets for further details.
- Late Assignments:
 - The penalty for late assignments is one refined letter grade per class day (T-F) late. Moreover, late assignments may be graded and returned later than on-time submissions.
 - Extensions may be granted on written assignments in exceptional circumstances, but must be requested in advance.
- This is not high school: all assignments must be submitted to receive a passing final grade.
- The most current version of this syllabus will always be available on Moodle. You are responsible for any changes to it announced in class.

Participation – 5%

Participation is your visible engagement with the class and the readings: read the assigned texts before class, look alert in class, ask questions, share your thoughts, and visit my office when you need help. It goes without saying that this requires regular attendance: skip classes and your grade will suffer.

Literalization Exercises – 4 x 5% ea. = 20%

To understand a poem, one must first identify its plain, literal meaning. You will write five sonnet literalizations; the last four will count toward your grade. Moreover, you may rewrite any one literalization and resubmit it. Due as indicated on the course calendar; optional rewrite due December 10.

Essays – 10%, 20%, 25%

Essays will allow you to develop your writing ability by practicing three different aspects of textual analysis: analysis (1000 words; 10%), comparison (1500 words; 20%), and research (1500 words; 25%). Essay 1 thesis due October 4; Essays due on October 10, November 7, and December 10, respectively.

Final examination – 20%

The exam will be comprehensive of the entire course. 9:00 am Saturday, December 14.

Further directions for assignments will be given well before they are due.

Attendance

Learning how to read literature and write essays is not simply a matter of memorizing facts from Powerpoint slides. Therefore, class attendance is mandatory. Attendance will be taken daily and will influence your participation grade. Any student who misses more than 8 class sessions will automatically fail the course.

Classroom Etiquette

In order for each of us to get the most out of this class, please observe the following:

- Arrive on time. Attendance will be taken.
- Do not talk compulsively. Be self-aware and leave space for others' voices.
- Do not be silent. Speaking is a crucial aid to formulating your thoughts on a topic.
- Eating in a formal venue like a classroom is brutish; since university education is meant to humanize you, don't do it. Unslurped beverages are fine.
- Texting or having your phone beep, ring, or rumble during class is not quite brutish (animals don't use technology), but it is certainly barbaric. Since university education is meant not only to humanize but to civilize you, offending devices will be confiscated for the duration of class.
- Despite frothy claims to the contrary by scholars often addicted to it, technology does not usually aid learning. Therefore, students may not use any device more complex than pen and paper in our classroom.

Because of the nature of the Alpha 4.00 system, there can be no uniform University-wide conversion scale. The relationship between raw scores (e.g. percentages) and the resultant letter grade will depend on the nature of the course and the instructor's assessment of the level of each class, compared to similar classes taught previously.

Please note that final grades will be available on student registration system. Printed grade sheets are not mailed out.

Ambrose University Academic Policies

Communication

All students have received an Ambrose e-mail account upon registration. It is the student's responsibility to check this account regularly as the Ambrose email system will be the professor's instrument for notifying students of important matters (cancelled class sessions, extensions, requested appointments, etc.) between class sessions. If students do not wish to use their Ambrose accounts, they will need to forward all messages from the Ambrose account to another personal account.

Registration

During the Registration Revision Period students may enter a course without permission, change the designation of any class from credit to audit and /or voluntary withdraw from a course without financial or academic penalty or record. Courses should be added or dropped on the student portal by the deadline date; please consult the List of Important Dates. After that date, the original status remains and the student is responsible for related fees.

Students intending to withdraw from a course after the Registration Revision Period must apply to the Office of the Registrar by submitting a "Request to Withdraw from a Course" form or by sending an email to the Registrar's Office by the Withdrawal Deadline; please consult the List of Important Dates on the my.ambrose.edu website. Students will not receive a tuition refund for courses from which they withdraw after the Registration Revision period. A grade of "W" will appear on their transcript.

Students wishing to withdraw from a course, but who fail to do so by the applicable date, will receive the grade earned in accordance with the course syllabus. A student obliged to withdraw from a course after the Withdrawal Deadline because of health or other reasons may apply to the Registrar for special consideration.

Exam Scheduling

Students, who find a conflict in their exam schedule must submit a Revised Examination Request form to the Registrar's Office by the deadline date; please consult the List of Important Dates. Requests will be considered for the following reasons only: 1) the scheduled final examination slot conflicts with another exam; 2) the student has three final exams within three consecutive exam time blocks; 3) the scheduled final exam slot conflicts with an exam at another institution; 4) extenuating circumstances. Travel is not considered a valid excuse for re-scheduling or missing a final exam.

Electronic Etiquette

Students are expected to treat their instructor, guest speakers, and fellow students with respect. It is disruptive to the learning goals of a course or seminar and disrespectful to fellow students and the instructor to use electronics for purposes unrelated to the course during a class session. Turn off all cell phones and other electronic devices during class. Laptops should be used for class-related purposes only. Do not use iPods, MP3 players, or headphones. Do not text, read, or send personal emails, go on Facebook or other social networks, search the internet, or play computer games during class. Some professors will not allow the use of any electronic devices in class. The professor has the right to disallow the student to use a laptop in future lectures and/or to ask a student to withdraw from the session if s/he does not comply with this policy. Repeat offenders will be directed to the Dean. If you are expecting communication due to an emergency, please speak with the professor before the class begins.

Academic Policies

It is the responsibility of all students to become familiar with and adhere to academic policies as stated in the Academic Calendar. Any information collected will only be used and disclosed for the purpose for which the collection was intended. For further information contact the Privacy Compliance Officer at privacy@ambrose.edu.

Although extensions to coursework in the semester are at the discretion of the instructor, students may not turn in coursework for evaluation after the last day of the scheduled final examination period unless they have received permission for a course Extension from the Registrar's Office. Requests for course extensions or alternative examination time must be submitted to the Registrar's Office by the deadline date; please consult the List of Important Dates. Course extensions are only granted for serious issues that arise "due to circumstances beyond the student's control."

An appeal for change of grade on any course work must be made to the course instructor within one week of receiving notification of the grade. An appeal for change of final grade must be submitted to the Registrar's Office in writing and providing the basis for appeal within 30 days of receiving notification of the final grade, providing the basis for appeal. A review fee of $50.00 must accompany the appeal. If the appeal is sustained, the fee will be refunded.

Academic Integrity

We are committed to fostering personal integrity and will not overlook breaches of integrity such as plagiarism and cheating. Academic dishonesty is taken seriously at Ambrose University as it undermines our academic standards and affects the integrity of each member of our learning community. Any attempt to obtain credit for academic work through fraudulent, deceptive, or dishonest means is academic dishonesty. Plagiarism involves presenting someone else's ideas, words, or work as one's own. Plagiarism is fraud and theft, but plagiarism can also occur by accident when a student fails or forgets to acknowledge to another person's ideas or words. Plagiarism and cheating can result in a failing grade for an assignment, for the course, or immediate dismissal from the university. Students are expected to be familiar with the policies in the current Academic Calendar that deal with plagiarism, cheating, and the penalties and procedures for dealing with these matters. All cases of academic dishonesty are reported to the Academic Dean and become part of the student's permanent record.

Note: Students are strongly advised to retain this syllabus for their records.
