Course Description

This course is designed as an introduction to the representative novels of the twentieth century. The focus of the course is the study of prose works by British, American, and Canadian writers covering and contrasting two literary periods—Modernism and Postmodernism.

Course Objectives

1. This course will provide essential working tools to distinguish Modernism from Postmodernism.
2. This course will give students the foundation for understanding the literature of the twentieth century.
3. The course will attempt to define the parameters of the twentieth-century novel through close reading, with some attention to the social, historical, intellectual, and literary background.

Important Notes/Dates

It is the responsibility of all students to become familiar with and adhere to the academic policies of Ambrose University College as stated in the Student Handbook and Academic Calendar.

The last day to enter a course without permission and/or voluntary withdrawal from a course without financial penalty is September 15, 2013.

The last day to withdraw from a course voluntarily or to change to audit without academic penalty is November 12, 2013

Extensions

Although extensions to coursework in the semester are at the discretion of the instructor, students may not turn in coursework for evaluation after the last day of the scheduled final examination period unless they have received permission for a "Course Extension." Alternative times for final examinations cannot be scheduled without prior approval. Requests for course extensions or alternative examination time must be submitted to the Registrar's Office by the November 25, 2013. Course extensions are only granted for serious issues that arise "due to circumstances beyond the student's control."

Electronic Etiquette

Students are expected to treat their instructor, guest speakers, and fellow students with respect. It is disruptive to the learning goals of a course or seminar and disrespectful to fellow students and the instructor to engage in electronically enabled activities unrelated to the class during a class session. Please turn off all cell phones and other electronic devices during class. Laptops should be used for class-related purposes only. Please do not use iPods, MP3 players, or headphones. Do not text, read, or send personal emails, go on Facebook or other social networks, search the internet, or play computer games during class. The professor has the right to disallow the student to use a laptop in future lectures and/or to ask a student to withdraw from the session if s/he does not comply with this policy. Repeat offenders will be directed to the Dean. If you are expecting communication due to an emergency, please speak with the professor before class begins.

Academic Integrity

We are committed to fostering personal integrity and will not overlook breaches of integrity such as plagiarism and cheating. Academic dishonesty is taken seriously at Ambrose University College as it undermines our academic standards and affects the integrity of each member of our learning community. Any attempt to obtain credit for academic work through fraudulent, deceptive, or dishonest means is academic dishonesty. Plagiarism involves presenting someone else's ideas, words, or work as one's own. Plagiarism is fraud and theft, but plagiarism can also occur by accident when a student fails or forgets to give credit to another person's ideas or words. Plagiarism and cheating can result in a failing grade for an assignment, for the course, or immediate dismissal from the university college. Students are expected to be familiar with the policies in the current Academic Calendar and the Student Handbook that deal with plagiarism, cheating, and the penalties and procedures for dealing with these matters. All cases of academic dishonesty are reported to the Academic Dean and become part of the student's permanent record. Please note: All term papers for this course are automatically subjected to an originality analysis by Turnitin. For more information, see <http://turnitin.com> .

Students are advised to retain this syllabus for their records.
